JOIN US ON THE EUROSTAR STAGE

- Speaking at the EuroSTAR conference is a career goal for many testers and for experienced speakers, it is a much anticipated opportunity to connect with fellow speakers and the wider EuroSTAR community.

- The EuroSTAR programme is created by the community for the community and is the longest running software testing conference in Europe!

- Speaking at EuroSTAR raises your profile whilst giving back to the testing community by sharing your practical experience so attendees can learn from you and grow.

"EuroSTAR is the biggest testing conference in Europe. You're going to meet so many other speakers and they're not just within a single niche, they're across the entire spectrum of software testing.

You've got people in the audience that you've heard speak or read their books and that can really push you to speak the best you can.

Alan Richardson

"From the very first moment, I felt part of the EuroSTAR family. Whether organisers, speakers, participants, sponsors or partners, everyone shares a passion for quality assurance and testing. The international flair and openness of everyone is contagious, inspiring and motivating.

Never before have I met so many great, nice, interesting people in such a short time at an event of this size.

SPEAKER SUPPORT

At EuroSTAR, we search for speakers who inform and inspire testers to be better. Every speaker is a storyteller and EuroSTAR provides a platform for your story.

We also support our speakers through every step they take with EuroSTAR. Right now maybe you are thinking that you have lots of great ideas but are too nervous to put yourself forward to speak?

Get in touch with us and we'll help guide you on how best to submit. Even the very best speakers had to start somewhere and not everyone was as confident starting out as they may seem now. We are here to help you.

At EuroSTAR we are committed to encouraging new voices and helping new speakers come to the fore.

Software Testing is a huge industry and there are lots of incredibly engaged testers at all levels, from all backgrounds, spread throughout so many different countries and we'd love to help you share your story and experiences with the EuroSTAR audience.
